

Gallery X hiring event curator for new initiative showcasing BIPOC creatives

Job Title: Special Exhibition Curator (Part-Time, Temporary)

Background	Gallery X is set to kick off a new initiative to expand its work on racial diversity and equity. Part of this initiative includes promoting the work of BIPOC artists and creatives of Greater New Bedford in an upcoming program. The program will include a visual art exhibition, music, and other special performances showcasing BIPOC creatives as well as addressing issues of diversity and equity in the arts. To facilitate this program the organization is seeking to hire a Special Exhibition Curator who will join our team to organize and plan this program which is set to take place in July 2024.
Description	The Special Exhibition Curator will work alongside our executive director to determine the scope and direction of the program, develop a call for art for the visual exhibitions, solicit ideas for workshops and performances from artists and organizations, and assist with scheduling to ensure the successful implementation of the initiative's goals.
Desired Skills / Qualifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• The ideal candidate will be an artist (visual or performing) with strong communication skills and experience planning or coordinating an exhibition or event.• Ability to work both independently and with a small group.• Strong organizational skills and ability to set and meet deadlines.• Proficiency with social media.• Familiarity with arts and cultural organizations in the New Bedford area is a plus.
Pay	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• $2200.00 stipend + 1 year free artist membership to Gallery X.• Partially remote, flexible working hours

To apply: Email resume to our executive director, Zachary White (GalleryXNB@gmail.com) along with a brief (3–5 sentence) explanation of why you are interested in the initiative and what makes you an ideal candidate for this program. Deadline to apply: February 12.

This temporary, part-time position is made possible by support from the CCI Racial Equity Learn & Implement Grant of the SouthCoast Community Foundation in partnership with the Island Foundation.